

The Chief End of Man - February 4, 2018

Q1. What is the Chief End of Man?

A. Man's chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy him forever.

Westminster Catechism 1640's

GLORIFY: For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen. – Romans 11:36

ENJOY: I have set the LORD always before me...Therefore, my heart is glad, and my whole being rejoices; You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore. – Psalm 16

LifeTruth: Any pursuit of purpose that is not bound to the glory and enjoyment of God will leave a person unfulfilled and disheartened and is doomed to utter loss.

- How does a person glorify and enjoy God? Jesus pointed us to obedience.
I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do. - John 17:4
Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me...If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. - John 14

“I believe the very last thing God desires is to have shallow minded and worldly Christians bragging about Him” – AW Tozer

The Chief End of Man - February 4, 2018

Q1. What is the Chief End of Man?

A. Man's chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy him forever.

Westminster Catechism 1640's

GLORIFY: For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen. – Romans 11:36

ENJOY: I have set the LORD always before me...Therefore, my heart is glad, and my whole being rejoices; You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore. – Psalm 16

LifeTruth: Any pursuit of purpose that is not bound to the glory and enjoyment of God will leave a person unfulfilled and disheartened and is doomed to utter loss.

- How does a person glorify and enjoy God? Jesus pointed us to obedience.
I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do. - John 17:4
Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me...If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. - John 14

“I believe the very last thing God desires is to have shallow minded and worldly Christians bragging about Him” – AW Tozer

*For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he made five talents more. So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents; here, I have made five talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me two talents; here, I have made two talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here, you have what is yours.' But his master answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I scattered no seed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Matthew 25:14 – 30

Observe: The faithful servant knew his master, labored from that knowledge with all their abilities and provision, and entered His joy.

*For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he made five talents more. So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents; here, I have made five talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me two talents; here, I have made two talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here, you have what is yours.' But his master answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I scattered no seed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Matthew 25:14 – 30

Observe: The faithful servant knew his master, labored from that knowledge with all their abilities and provision, and entered His joy.