A Reading From

2 Chronicles 1 (CSB)

⁷ That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask. What should I give you?"

⁸ And Solomon said to God, "You have shown great and faithful love to my father David, and you have made me king in his place. ⁹ LORD God, let your promise to my father David now come true. For you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth. ¹⁰ Now grant me wisdom and knowledge so that I may lead these people, for who can judge this great people of yours?"

¹¹ God said to Solomon, "Since this was in your heart, and you have not requested riches, wealth, or glory, or for the life of those who hate you, and you have not even requested long life, but you have requested for yourself wisdom and knowledge that you may judge my people over whom I have made you king, ¹² wisdom and knowledge are given to you. I will also give you riches, wealth, and glory, unlike what was given to the kings who were before you, or will be given to those after you."

Proverbs 1:5-6 - Let the wise hear and increase in learning, and the one who understands obtain guidance, ⁶ to understand a proverb and a saying, the words of the wise and their riddles..

Pray the LORD will grant us ears to hear, open minds to increase in learning, and humble hearts to receive wisdom and understanding from His Spirit. Ask that we will meditate on the Scriptures and be able to walk in them to shine the light of Jesus.

The Beginning

David McConnell

Proverbs 1 (ESV)

¹The proverbs of Solomon, son of David, king of Israel:

²To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight, ³to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity; ⁴to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the youth— ⁵Let the wise hear and increase in learning and the one who understands obtain guidance, ⁶to understand a proverb and a saying, the words of the wise and their riddles.

⁷The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.
